

Leave Wisconsin's no call list legislation alone. Those of us who signed up for "no call" meant to do exactly what the legislation provides --- have peace and quiet at home. If we wanted all those calls at home, we would not have signed up.